PRESIDENT PAUL L. GARRETT

Paul L. Garrett Made Western's Second President

Paul L. Garrett was elected president of Western at a meeting of the Board of Regents September 1 in Frankfort, succeeding Dr. H. H. Cherry who died Sunday, August 1, at his home on the Western campus.

President Garrett was given a four-year contract at an annual salary of $5,000, and will have for his use during his presidency the president's home on the campus. He assumed his new duties immediately, resigning the post of director of the Division of Personnel Efficiency in the State Department of Finance at Frankfort.

President Garrett is 43 years old, is married, and has three sons. He is a member of the American Legion and attends the Baptist Church.

President Garrett was born in Shelby County in 1893. He received his early education in the rural and high schools of the county. He received his college training at Georgetown, the University of Kentucky and the University of Chicago.

The new executive served two years as principal of the Crittenden High School. In 1917 he became principal of what is now known as Campbellsburg High School but was then known as the J. W. Pearey Private School. He resigned from this position to join the field artillery of the American expeditionary force in 1918.

After his discharge from the army, he served as principal of New Castle Schools, for five years, then became superintendent of schools at Versailles in 1924, remaining there until February, 1937, when he became director of the Frankfort bureau.

Headliners for the chapel appearance are F. Trafford Taylor, Canadian president of Kiwanis International, Harper Gatten, Madisonville, ex-president of the district group, and Spencer McCullie, headmaster of a private boys' school, Knoxville, Tennessee.

Dr. L. Y. Lancaster of the department of biology is vice-president of the local Kiwanis. Registrar E. H. Canon has been secretary of the same group since 1929, and Dr. M. L. Billings, head of the department of psychology, is a member of its board of directors.

Each of these members of the faculty has been placed on committees in charge of the event.

Laudermilk Is Fair Judge
Mr. Charles A. Laudermilk of the Agriculture department has been out of the city recently. He judged cattle at the fairs of Breckinridge and Hart Counties and at the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville.

Miss Elizabeth Woods Makes Appeal In Letter

INSCRIPTIONS ADOPTED

A memorial to Dr. H. H. Cherry, late president of Western Kentucky State Teachers College and sponsor of the statutes which created the normal schools and teachers colleges of Kentucky, will be dedicated at the annual "Founder's Day" program on College Heights, Bowling Green, November 16. The public is invited and urged to be present.

On this date a bronze statue, an exact likeness of President Cherry by the great American sculptor, the late Lorada Taft, will be unveiled. The ten-foot figure mounted on a granite base will occupy a commanding site in front of Henry Hardin Cherry Hall, the magnificent new classroom building recently completed.

The statue, costing $20,000, is a contribution by the faculty and alumni of Western and other friends throughout the country who knew and loved him.

There is yet a deficit of $1,500 to be raised in order to dedicate this beautiful memorial on "Founder's Day," November 16, and the committee in-charge asks every reader of this article who has not yet sent in their contribution and who wishes to have a part in this final tribute to Dr. Cherry, to consider this an emergency appeal and make their response immediately, or not later than November 1, so their names will appear on the list of subscribers to be placed inside the memorial.

This is urgent and your final opportunity. Send checks to Miss Mattie McLean, Secretary, Cherry Memorial Fund, Bowling Green, Ky.

Miss Woods' Appeal

A letter, written by Miss Elizabeth Woods, who was formerly connected with the foreign language department of the college, is being sent to a number of friends and former students of Dr. Cherry, and it is being reprinted here so that it may have a wider circulation.

Text of the letter follows:
The time has come when the thousands of friends of the late President H. H. Cherry feel that a last gesture of love and appreciation, coming from the hearts of those who knew and loved him, can be fittingly paid to the memory of a man who for nearly a half-century meant so much to our own school and to the cause of education generally throughout the State of Kentucky.

Unique in his field of endeavor and remarkably successful in his achievements, he has perhaps touched, encouraged and inspired more young lives than any man in the entire South. Countless numbers of young women and young men have passed out through the portals of Western Teachers College to take their place

Western Players Tryouts Held On Tuesday Evening

Tuesday night in the Little Theater of the Library about 35 persons entered the tryouts for roles in the fall production of the Western College Players.

The two most favored among the plays are "The Labyrinth" and "Squaring the Circle." All tryouts consisted of readings from these plays and a third entitled "Kind Lady."

Further announcement regarding tryouts and selection of the play are to be made today.

Red and Grey Studies Latest Rhythmic Events

That the Red and Grey orchestra is definitely in existence again this year will be readily taken for granted by anyone passing the Music Hall any time after dark. The latest swing numbers heard promise many rhythmic events for the future.

Vacancies left by Owen Sietz, who is teaching in the Lexington City Schools, Jack Henard, now a student at the University of Kentucky, and Bill Herriman, who is teaching in West Virginia have been filled.

Band Practices For First Appearance At Homecoming Game

Western's 100 piece band, under the direction of Dr. R. D. Perry, has begun practice for its initial appearance October 9 at the annual Homecoming.

New talent has been discovered among the influx of freshmen many of the newcomers having received recognition in civic contests in Chicago and throughout the middle-west.

Dr. Nell DeShon, tremendously successful as drum major and sponsor last year, has again been chosen for that part. Miss DeShon is from Madisonville.

The R. O. T. C. Band, which is still a comparatively new organization, has a much larger enrollment than in past seasons. It is under the direction of Doc Chenoweth.

and Melvin Breidenbach, who is in his second year at Western.

BOWLING GREEN, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1937

GRIEF IS NOT OFTEN EXPRESSED SO WELL in words, as is pleasure, because when one takes thought enough to express it, it tends to be dispelled—or to lead to despair.

Western's loss in the death of Dr. Henry Hardin Cherry was incalculable, as everyone at Western knows. What many do not know is the individual loss; many boys and girls in the Commonwealth of Kentucky have lost their best friend—lost him before they were old enough to know him.

Most of those who are on the campus today know the full measure of their loss.
Happily, however, they know his formula for dispelling despair, "Life More Life."

PRESIDENT PAUL L. GARRETT COMES TO Western with the opening of the fall semester, not replacing but succeeding its first president and founder, Dr. Henry Hardin Cherry.

President Garrett's attitude is evidence that he recognizes the responsibility of his position. He is well recommended by that attitude, as well as by the testimony of his fellow townsmen of Versailles.

Among other qualifications President Garrett comes with experience in business administration efficiency which, undoubtedly, is one of the most important requisites of an executive.

The College Heights Herald, representing in some measure the voice of the students of Western, recognizes the common interests of the students and the administration, and gives its support to President Garrett in whatever programs he chooses to continue or to initiate in the interests of the college.

THE BRONZE STATUE OF DR. HENRY HARDIN CHERRY will be unveiled on College Heights on November 16 and by November 1 you will decide that you will—or you will not—be one of those who made this beautiful memorial possible.

It has been said that the Hill is Dr. Cherry's memorial, that he does not need a statue. That is true. Those who knew him know that which is to them more than a memorial.

Not for these but for their children this memorial should be built. And Dr. Cherry's friends are erecting this memorial, not because of his need but because they loved him.

IN THE LULL BEFORE THE STORM THAT will start on next Friday when the Homecomers start pouring into town, the Herald wishes to solicit a more active interest in its welfare among the students, Alumni, and faculty.

And in regard to Homecoming, nothing seems more appropriate than that bit of American slang, "Be seen, you."

Cherry Statue Fund Nears Goal

In life's battles bearing the impress of his dynamic personality; challenging courage and militant spirit, carrying in their hearts renewed faith and courage for what lay before them in an untried future.

A great educator, a great citizen, a great heart. We shall not look upon his life again. And so here upon the scene of his life-long labors and activities, now stilled in death, we would erect with loving hands a monument in bronze that may tell future generations what the life of H. H. Cherry has meant to this community and to the State of Kentucky.

—Elizabeth Woods.

Saturday afternoon, marks the crowning event of the Homecoming celebration. At 2:30 p. m. Coach Carl "Swede" Anderson will send his Hilltopper football team onto the gridiron in the Western Stadium in an effort to score their second straight Homecoming victory. A football team losing three successive Homecoming tilts, the Toppers defeated Oglethorpe University by 6-0 last season on Homecoming Day. This year the Tampa University Spartans are to be met, and the fact that on each visit to Western, the Spartans bring gifts suggestive of their home land as presents to the college, will serve to make the occasion all the more glamorous.

Before the beginning of the game at approximately 2:15 p. m. the presidents of Western and Tampa University will be presented to the Homecoming gathering, as will visiting lettermen of Western from 1920 to 1936 inclusive.

Immediately after the game, there will be informal gatherings of visitors in the Cedar House, J. Whit Potter and West Hall.

As a climax to the gala celebration, the annual Shadow Hop will be held in the Physical Education Building at 10:00 p. m. Saturday night. Music for the hop will be furnished by the "Red and Grey."

Members of the Homecoming committee are: President Paul L. Garrett, Chairman. Ex-Officio, Acting Chairman Charles Taylor, and L. T. Smith; Carl Anderson, W. J. Craig; Will B. Hill, Dr. H. L. Stevens, W. L. Matthews, Arnold Winkenhof, Miss Susie West McLean, and Miss Matie McLean. Arnold Winkenhof has been put in charge of the parade and festivities to be conducted on Friday night.

The Western-Tampa game will mark the opening of Western's new press box which, at the present time, is under construction. Built to house from twenty to thirty men, the structure will be a great improvement over that used for the same purpose last year.

WESTERN SLIGHT FAVORITE

At press time, Western's Hilltoppers rule a slight favorite to defeat the Spartans of Tampa University. Victorious by 23-0 last season, the Hilltoppers loom even stronger than they were a year ago. Barring injuries which might be sustained in the Bradley Polytechnic game Saturday at Peoria, Illinois, Coach Anderson should be able to put onto the field a team with an average line weight of better than 180 pounds per man. The backfield will be comparatively light, but a lack of weight will be offset by speed.

The probable starting lineup for the Homecoming game follows: ends, Batzel and Cooper or Adams; tackles, Panopinto and Malone; guards, Cook and Trip-

T. C. Cherry Gives Hand-Made Compass To Kentucky Museum

Prof. T. C. Cherry, retired superintendent of Bowling Green schools and brother of the late President H. H. Cherry, presented a crude old hand-made compass to the Kentucky museum.

It is interesting not only in its size and the way in which it was constructed, but in its history. This compass was used by Robert Craddock before the year 1800. He was a revolutionary soldier and lived near Bowling Green for a period of years prior to his death. Craddock was a surveyor, extensive land owner, and a great educator.

By his will he created a fund for the indigent children of school age in Kentucky. This fund still exists and is much greater now than it was when it was created. Other possessions of Robert Craddock in the museum are his land grant, papers, and will.

Dugdon Takes Net Tilt
Western's number one tennis player, Ralph Dugdon, won the city title of Bowling Green this year by beating Ayers, the Western number two man, in the final in a hard fought 5 set match.

Mr. Posey has accepted a position as chemist in the research laboratory of the Devco and Reynolds Paint Company, Chicago. Mr. Posey attended Vanderbilt University following his graduation from Western.

SPORTS SHORTS

By Robert L. Fay, Herald Sports Editor

If there is anything more amusing or ridiculous than trying to write an interesting column about a football game, it is to take a crack at it. But nevertheless there has piled up a ponderous amount of material which must be disposed of. Among the various and sundry items foremost on our files are:

The 'Toppers' opening 7-0 victory over the Kansas State Teachers, Friday night.

The oncoming tilt with Bradley Poly at Peoria next Saturday. Since this paper will be on the press before the game is played we can only predict the outcome. Our guess is: Western 20, Bradley 0.

Vandy's 12-0 victory over Kentucky, Saturday. Remember Western's 3 touchdown victory over the Commodores last spring in the practice game? As near as we can remember, the score was 27-6. Since Vandy topped the Wildcats with practically the same lineup which lost to Western last season, isn't there foundation enough to secure future games with the Cats?

Of course some doubting Thomases will point out that the Western-Vandy contest was merely a practice affair, and that

:- Sports On College Heights :- Hilltoppers Trying For Second Win of Season

No Play-By-Play Reports
Coach Edgar Stansbury and Publicity Director, Will B. Hill, state that there will be no broadcast of the Western football games that are played away from home. Arrangements for the amplifying system in the Western stadium have not been completed.

Ray Morrison, the Commodore Mentor was not sufficiently interested in the outcome of the game to drive his team toward a victory. They, too, might point out that the players were under no mental strain and therefore loafed through the game without giving their best. Many of the players on both sides were prospective sophomores and utility men. Did you ever see a sophomore trying to win a regular berth lay down? Even if all the above assumptions were true, did they not also hold true as far as Western was concerned? Of course they did.

Never let it be said that we were trying to stir up any adverse sentiment, but Bowling Green football and basketball fans would welcome an annual Western-U. of K. encounter.

Take Notice Footballers—Your desire for some good publicity is about to be realized. Bruce Dudley, Sports Editor of the Courier-Journal will be in town soon. Bruce is in the midst of his annual tour of the football camps of Kentucky and will be in his westward swing soon. He is expected in Bowling Green around October 1.

Kelly Thompson, former publicity director on the Hill is also expected to arrive in town next week-end from Indianapolis. Kelly will be here until after Homecoming. Look him up when he arrives—he'll be glad to see you.

Allan Gorin, that mite of a lad from Greensburg is back again. It's too bad they eliminated the center jump, but Gorin can still be useful. With him stationed under an enemy basket, Western would be a cinch to whitewash their opponents. All Gorin would have to do would be to hold his hand up in front of the basket.

An open letter to Coach "Swede" Anderson: "Just in case you haven't noticed, have a look at this boy Southern from Butler High. The backbone of the Princeton team, Southern has been acclaimed one of the best college prospects in the state. Incidentally it was he who tossed the touchdown pass against Bowling Green High Friday night." Freshmen who desire prints of

HILLTOPPERS TIP KANSANS 7-0 ON BREAK

Andersonmen Outplay Gorillas
TURF RAIN-SOAKED

Capitalizing on a break that came during the last five minutes of the game, Western's Hilltoppers captured the opening game of their season when they defeated the Gorillas of Kansas State Teachers College by 7-0, Friday night at Pittsburg, Kansas.

Although the Andersonmen outplayed their opponents throughout, they were unable to score during the first three quarters due partly to the uncertain footing of the rain-soaked turf.

The break came just in the nick of time when the Kansas team fumbled on their own 24-yard line and Cooper, playing right end, recovered for the 'Toppers. Williams cracked center twice for a first down on the 13-yard stripe. Bibich then tossed to Stevens who was standing in the end zone for the tally. Gill, who performed earlier in the game, was rushed back into the fray to convert. His kick from placement was good.

A fumble by the Westernites early in the first quarter almost cost them a score. After an exchange of punts following the opening whistle, Wayman, Gorilla halfback, kicked 62 yards to the Western 19-yard line. A fumble shortly after was recovered by Sours on the 24-yard line. Kansas took to the air but lost the ball on down on the 26. An exchange of punts followed.

The pictures taken on the football field last week apply at the Publicity office. To Joe Clark: There's a picture for you there, also.

Maybe this hasn't anything to do with sports but Mack Cook, Jr., a freshman here, deserves special mention. Mack, only 14½ years old, is the youngest student ever to enroll at Western. Mack is from Beaver Dam, Kentucky, and is entering college at the age when most boys are eighth graders or freshmen in high school.

change of punts ensued and Bibich raced twenty-six yards behind beautiful interference to the host team's 45-yard line for the initial first down of the game. Bibich made eight more through the line and then made it a first down on the Kansas 34-yard line as the first period ended.

Starting the second quarter Baker and Williams took the ball to the 23-yard mark and a 5-yard pass carried the leather to the 18. At this point the Kansas held and a long kick by Wyman put them back on their own 15. Exchanges of punts consumed the remainder of the first half with neither team threatening seriously.

Early in the third canto Bibich and Williams combined to carry the ball to the Gorilla 31-yard line. A pass from Bibich to Batsel took the ball to the fifteen but an incomplete pass over the goal-line gave the losers possession of the ball on their twenty. Baker intercepted Greyer's pass on his own 46 but when they could not gain the 'Toppers kicked to Kansas on their own 29 as the quarter ended.

Throughout most of the fourth quarter the play was fairly even. It was only in the closing minutes that Western was able to get into enemy territory. A Gorilla fumble on the 23-yard line was recovered by Henry Cooper, and Williams made a first down on the 13-yard stripe on a line plunge. Bibich then dropped back and tossed over the goal line to Stevens, a substitute half-back, for the tally.

Gill kicked from placement for the extra point. Kansas kicked off, and the final gun ended the game with Western in possession of the ball near mid-field.

MEET BRADLEY TECH INDIANS

Game Scheduled For This Afternoon

Off on their second jaunt in as many weeks, Coaches Carl Anderson and W. L. Terry, twenty-eight Hilltoppers, and Trainer Johnny Crowds, left Bowling Green shortly after noon Wednesday for Peoria, Illinois, where they will meet the Bradley Polytechnic Indians this afternoon in an effort to score their second victory of the season.

Rumors have it that the today's game is the highlight on the Bradley schedule and preparations are being made to accommodate a capacity crowd of approximately 7,000 persons. With the exception of an end and a guard position the locals will line up as they did last Friday. Lucien Adams may get the starting call at an end, in the place of Henry Cooper, who is still bothered with a bruised shoulder, and Tom Triplett may start at a guard where Freeman Carothers opened last week. In the event Cooper and Carothers are not in the opening lineup, both are certain to see plenty of action.

J. C. Batsel is slated for the end post, while Alternate Captain Joe Cook will go in at the other guard position. The sophomore tackle starters last week are certain to open against Bradley-Sam Panepinto and Walter Malone. Captain Clarence Caple will again be at the center position.

The starting backfield will be chosen from George "Cannonball" Bibich, "Butterball" Williams, Jimmie Baker, Wadell Murphy, and Joe Gill.

Other performers on board when the bus departed, most of whom are likely to see service are: Backs, Magda, Stevens, Latkovic, and Hendrix; ends, Ramsey, Clark, Smith, and Thompson; tackles, Byrd, Goranilo, and Garrison; guards, Moore and Glannini, and center, Tipton.

Helen and Jonell Farris spent last week-end in Trenton.

COMPLETION OF PRESS BOX NEAR

Will Accommodate 30 Reporters

The construction of a new press box is rapidly being completed on the west side of the athletic field. This new structure replaces the old, inadequate box which has been used for press purposes during the past. According to L. T. Smith, chairman of the Athletic Committee, the box is to be a two story frame structure with the top floor being utilized by sport scribes and public address men. The ground floor is to be used for storage. The new press box will accommodate about thirty individuals and their equipment.

A public address system will be installed on top of the structure with a play by play description of the games being given from that point. Although the new press box is not to be as elaborate as at first planned, it will be a decided improvement over its predecessor. It will be in readiness for Western's Homecoming game with Tampa University on October 9.

Jesse Brown Gets Weather-Man Call

Jesse Brown, Western student, has been named by Dr. Judson Griffin as successor to James Lam, Western summer school graduate, as observer in the College Heights weather station. Mr. Lam, who has been the observer for the last few years, is now employed as filing clerk in a Louisville Standard Oil office.

Milner, Gadd Are Admitted To Bar

Two Western graduates were among the 67 candidates admitted to the practice of law recently by the Court of Appeals upon recommendation of the State Board of Bar Examiners. They were Charles M. Gadd, A. B. '35, and Sam Milner, A. B. '36.

A total of 87 had made application for admission. Milner was state oratory champion during his senior year at Western.
